BOARD REPORT

None

SUPERINTENDENT REPORT

BJ Buchmann started his report with recognitions. Candice Reed recognized Deputy Richard Haight for SRO Day. She also wanted to recognize the hard work that our teachers do. Her eyes were opened after having donated her time subbing a couple of days. Patrick Duff wanted to recognize Melissa Woodard for her hard work with the youth sports. BJ went on to discuss the FFA Complex and how it was coming together. Design Scapes was the only company to send so they will probably be the company that we go with. BJ explained the REAP meeting that he was a part of.

PRINCIPAL/AD REPORT

We are to the end of basketball. Mike Jobman explained how pigtail games will work. He will not know final results until this Sunday when things are officially announced. Hayley Whitehead handed out the Track Schedules to the Board. Mike said he had tried to add some new venues. Tristen Davidsen will be attending the state wrestling. CHSAA has said that they are moving forward with the 6-class system. We had the State Creed competition for FFA and an FBLA Competition. Kerrigan Garner and Victor Ibanez will be attending FBLA State. FFA Week is coming up next week. The Prom Committee has been working on Prom ideas. The Track equipment is coming in. We have a conex container to put it in. Once it is painted to match the other one, we will move it to its designated place. The schedule for next year is being worked on.
