FFA FENCE PRESENTIATION

Amanda Stoll came in and requested money from the school to help with the fencing that needs to be put around the perimeter of the FFA Farm. She showed some slides and where she thought the fence needed to go and showed the woven fence that she thought would work best.

SUPERITENDENT REPORT

Mr. Jobman stated that the schedule of classes has been finished for the upcoming school year. We need some more staff. CMAS testing had started. FBLA went to the state meet. There will be a G/T activity here on April 21st. He had been conducting teacher interviews. He still need s second first grade and 2 openings in 5th grade, SPED position and a PE position. He is going to advertise for the MS/HS principal. The Hired Hand Auction brought in about $8,900. Prom is coming up. We are doing the Vap sensors and cameras, cabling. He is working on the full time SRO. We have middle school and high school plays coming up as well as the elementary concerts. He is going to the CADA Conference. On April 18th he will be sworn onto the CHSSA Board. We had Tristin Davidsen sign his letter of intent.

PRINCIPAL REPORT

Greg Swiatkowski explained that he still does the walk throughs. He is visiting class rooms every day. Trying to get a feel for the rules that are wanting to be in place. Dress code and other rules and regulations need to be done consistently. He explained the Pathways to Success that the school is going to do. Ken, Jo and Carey are going to be trained in it. They will be going in June to DU for the training. It is of no cost to the school.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL REPORT

Seandra Humbert said that the first grade had a great Habitat Show Case. Sheryl Alba has been here for the diagnostic revenue. Sheryl will be here this week for 2 days of professional development. CMAS testing starts. She will be going on April 17th for her portfolio review process at ECBOCES to show how they work in conjunction with CDE.
